Date Set For December 4

Wiltberger Plans Crime Museum

New Player To Have Important Xmas Play Role

Henry Marshall, a new member of San Jose Players, will have an important role in "Joyous Season", to be presented December 3 and 4 in Morris Dailey auditorium.

Portraying an elegant, broken-down country landlord, Marshall is given opportunity to take full advantage of his resonant voice, described as unusually excellent by Hugh Gillis, director of the production.

A FRESHMAN

Marshall, a freshman, comes here from Mountain View high school where he took part in several dramatic productions. He will play the part of Martin Farley who is lazy and indolent but essentially likeable.

CHESTNUT INGENUE

Another newcomer who shows great promise, according to Mr. Gillis, is June Chestnut, also a freshman, from San Jose High school, who took a prominent part in dramatics while there.

Lorraine Callander will have the leading role of Christina Farley and will be supported by many well-known members of the Players including Gary Simpson, Frank Hamilton, Bill Gordon, Diane Wood, Lois Lack, and new members Emma Borzone, Arthur Van Horn, Bette Robinson, and Paul Hobbs.

This annual Christmas drama will be presented free of charge.

Game Set For 11

In order that San Jose football fans will have their gridiron menu completed in time to take care of the turkey dinners which will await most of them at home, the San Jose State-Arizona football game has been scheduled for 11 o'clock Thanksgiving morning.

Tickets for the Turkey Day attraction are on sale at Roos Brothers and Hale Bros.

Annual Faculty-Student Tea To Take Place Today In H.E. Building

Held for the purpose of better acquaintance between the women faculty members of San Jose State and the Associated Women Students, the annual Faculty-Student Tea will be sponsored today by A.W.S. in Room 1 of the Home Economics building from 3:30 to 5:30 o'clock.

The Tea will be progressively attended during the afternoon by faculty members who will be escorted and introduced by members of A.W.S., and by all campus women who are interested in being present, according to Vivian Sheaffer, general chairman of the tea.

Secretary vs. Vocalist; Queen Prefers Singing

She's a commerce major and she is studying to be a secretary, but still, says Queen Agnes Madden, "I would much rather keep on singing than be a secretary."

Months ago she won first prize in an amateur hour in Capitola, and very soon after was engaged as a vocalist with a popular dance band. Since February she has been singing with that group, but in her own modest way, Agnes remarked, "I don't know how I kept the job."

SHAKY

Being called out of class to be informed of her election as the last Spartan grid queen almost proved too much for the 17-year-old miss, and she returned to her psychology exam with knees shaky for the rest of the period.

Sensing her difficulty, Dr. Clark called Agnes to his desk and told her that she had ample reason to flunk the test. And the queen rested much easier.

Aside from her singing, Miss Madden goes in for tennis, swimming, and she loves to dance.

SINGS TWICE

She will prove different than her predecessors in that she will sing for the rally tonight and over the air tomorrow night on the Spartan broadcast. She will bring part of the band with her on Wednesday to accompany her. It will also play a medley of college songs on the program.

Probably her greatest achievement, and one she can be proud of, is that she knows the words to "Hail, Spartans, Hail". And this, our San Jose alma mater song, she will sing as a concluding number on the Wednesday night broadcast.

FROM NOTRE DAME

Queen Agnes is the second co-ed from Notre Dame High school to be named as "campus sweetheart". Miss Henrietta O'Brien, sponsor of the College of Pacific fracas, is also a graduate of that school and is a close friend of the present queen.

The final home show of the season will be the Arizona-San Jose game on Thanksgiving Day, and Miss Madden will be the honored guest for the clash that promises to be one of the most exciting clashes of the year.

Community Sing To Propose Plans For All Faculty Quartet

Can you imagine DeGroot singing a sweet baritone to Bill Poytress' lilting soprano with Dr. Hazeltine and Dr. Sotzin filling in with alto and tenor?

Well, it may sound impossible, but who can tell what will happen if the proposed plans for a faculty quartet singing "Sweet Adeline" at the third Kappa Phi community sing next Tuesday become an actuality.

According to Miss Berta Gray, sponsor, the committees for this sing will be announced at the Kappa Phi meeting tonight. Harriet Jones has been appointed general chairman of the sing, with John Andrews, accompanist.

New Year Dance Is Council Plan

Program Issue Passed To Prexy By Coach

New Year's Eve on Washington Square this year will be rollicking with noise and tangled in confetti. According to plans made last night by the student council, State is going to celebrate the coming of 1937 with an all-school dancing party in the men's gym.

Beginning at eight o'clock and lasting until an hour after midnight, the big celebration will be open to everyone with a student body card. Students may come in singles, pairs, or parties, the council decided.

Many students from distant cities will thus have a party to attend and have a good time celebrating the last night of the old year.

At the council meeting last night it was reported that Coach Dudley DeGroot had expressed himself in favor of coordination of student activities and willing to abide by any decision made by President T.W. MacQuarrie in the much discussed matter of who shall publish athletic contest programs—the physical education or the publications department.

It was tentatively decided that a meeting to decide the matter would be held tomorrow in Dr. MacQuarrie's office.

J. Edgar Hoover Approves Unique Police Project

A police museum, the only one of its kind west of New York, that will make San Jose State college the center of law enforcement study in the west is to be established by William A. Wiltberger, head of the police school.

The nucleus for the collection, a series of burglar tools, patterns of bullets, finger prints, pictures of accidents, windows that have been broken by prowlers, stolen jewelry, and other articles that have been employed by thieves and criminals in their operations, are already on hand.

ASK COOPERATION

Wiltberger has asked police officials to cooperate with him in making the museum a success.

With the aid of the many police forces in the west he hopes soon to have a large collection.

The museum, when completed, is to be accessible to the police as well as to the students of the San Jose State police school.

Senior Team To Be Honored At Tonight's Rally

A Stanford coach as speaker, senior team members on the stage, and presentation of Queen Agnes will mark the last rally of the quarter which will be held in the Morris Dailey auditorium tonight starting promptly at 7:30 o'clock.

As a final tribute to the team members who will make their last appearances before the student body Thanksgiving Day when they play against Arizona State college in the Spartan stadium, the last rally will be centered around their achievements of the past three years.

BUNN TO SPEAK

John Bunn, head basketball coach at Stanford University, and producer of the Pacific Coast Champions of 1936, will be the guest speaker. He is at present a scout for Tiny Thornhill, head football coach at Stanford.

On the entertainment program will be Leo Shortino, pianist; Gail Harbaugh, singer; Bill Tyler, violinist; Bob Boucke, singer; and John Green, pianist.

SKIT

An added feature will be the presentation of a post-football skit, the exact nature of which is not disclosed by Chairman Jim Welch. George Downing, former yell leader, will emcee the program, with the yell leaders leading the assemblage in cheers for the coaches and players.

The band, led by Bing O'Kelly, will open and close the program.

Social Affairs Board Grants Approval Of Off Campus Hop

Breaking all precedent, the last student body dance of the quarter will be held off-campus, December 4, in the Municipal auditorium.

For as far back as anyone on the campus can remember, State's student body dances have all been held here on the college grounds. Many times students have attempted to have the dances held at some other place, but it was not until this week, when several factors combined to make the plan feasible, that permission was obtained for a student body dance off campus.

LARGEST FLOOR

The civic auditorium was chosen by the social affairs committee as the most appropriate place to hold the dance since it was the largest floor in the city besides being one of the newest and most modern structures.

Permission was granted by the social affairs board, composed of Dean Helen Dimmick, Dean Charles Goddard, Neil Thomas, President T. W. MacQuarrie and Harold Kibby, to hold the dance in the auditorium when it was decided that it would be a good way to gain experience for the Diamond Jubilee celebration when the Grand Ball will be held in the municipal auditorium.

BAD FOR GAME

Another factor contributing to the decision was the statement made by Dud DeGroot, who declared that if the dance were held in the gymnasium on December 4, the floor would be in bad shape for the Stanford-State basketball game which will take place the next night.

Although the cost of renting the hall will be 75 dollars, Harold Kibby, chairman of the social affairs committee, announced that admission, as is usual at student body dances, will be free to holders of student body cards. Neil Thomas, controller, announces that the budget is sufficiently large to carry the expense.

However, Kibby stresses, there will be no admission taken at the

Recall 100 WAA Banquet Ducats

Plans which will include between-course dancing, are now being completed for the annual Christmas banquet given by the Women's Athletic Association which is to be held December 2, at the Hotel Sainte Claire at 6:30.

In order to make dancing possible one hundred tickets are being called back, and the dinner is now limited to one hundred and seventy-five. A popular campus orchestra will play.

Following the dinner a reception will be held in the hotel lounge for Miss Violet Marshall of the University of California who is guest speaker for the evening.

Tickets for the dinner are now on sale in the women's gymnasium for eighty-five cents.

Game Ticket Sale Progressing Fast Announces Bishop

Intensive Campaign To End Wednesday; Will Cover Downtown

"The tickets are going swell, and we have an enthusiastic bunch of girls out campaigning," Gil Bishop, graduate manager, said yesterday afternoon, regarding the advance ticket sale for the Arizona State game to be played Thanksgiving Day starting at 11 o'clock.

Many organizations have already received their tickets, and several packets are as yet uncalled for in the Controller's office, according to Jane Dangberg, chairman of the women's division.

END WEDNESDAY

The present campaign will end Wednesday afternoon, when the survey of the elementary and secondary schools will be concluded. One of the most intensive campaigns in years, the canvass will cover the business district and residential section of the town and neighboring cities.

As the last local appearance of the Spartan squad for the quarter, the game in the Spartan stadium is expected to draw a capacity crowd. The last game of the season will be played in the Hawaiian Islands during December.

LAST GAME

Among those to see their last game on the mainland are Captain Les Carpenter, George Cannell, Don Baldwin, Bruce Dally, Barney Swartzell, Charles Peach, Bob Wing, and Charles Spalding.

These men will be honored at the rally this evening in the Morris Dailey auditorium.

The organized rooting section will again be led by cheer leaders, Jerry Girdner, Harold Kibby, and Elbert Garcia.

Dr. J. Studebaker Speaks To Santa Clara Institute

"Sooner or later teachers will have to come to grips with social problems," Dr. J. W. Studebaker, United States Commissioner of Education, told members of the Santa Clara County Teachers Association yesterday at a meeting of the teachers' institute in the civic auditorium.

This generally falls to the lot of the "secondary teacher" he explained. Education means revealing alternative choices so that the student may form his own opinions on controversial problems, he said.

"Academic freedom means, freedom of learners to learn, not freedom of teachers to preach their own ideas," he stressed.

It isn't hard to take advantage of immature minds, he pointed out, but teachers must trust the learning process and present both sides of problems fearlessly.

This is difficult, he said, for there are people who are suspicious of the learning process. In this connection, he remarked, teachers in Washington, D. C. must sign a paper each month before they get their salaries which says that they have not taught any communism during the month.

He pointed out that this was a foolish law because any teacher regardless of what he taught would hastily sign it. That part of the law will soon be repealed, however, he added and was only passed because it was not noticed when the bill was passed.

"Students are more curious than ever about communism," he said, "when the teacher dodges issues."

"Teachers must keep themselves free from entangling political alliances and other vested interests," he warned, "in order to carry out their own various educational programs."

"Have you ever been active in party politics?" was a question he was asked when being interviewed prior to his acceptance as United States Commissioner of Education.

He replied that he never had for he did not want to be tagged when wishing to promote some educational idea. He intimated that this was a path that any teacher should follow.

Members of the anatomical research committee should see Vaughn Hubbard in Room 10.

Girl Marries Boss-- Both State Graduates

Pictured above are Miss Lorraine Dimmett and Mr. James F. Boccardo, both San Jose State college graduates, who were married Sunday at the Stanford Chapel.

Carrying out the traditional story of the boss who falls in love with his secretary, James F. Boccardo and Lorraine Dimmett, both graduates of State, were married Sunday in the Stanford chapel.

Although both had attended State, they did not meet until Miss Dimmett was employed as secretary to the local lawyer following her graduation in June, 1935.

Boccardo was graduated from State in June, 1931, with an A.B. degree in chemical engineering and from Stanford in 1934 with a law degree. In the fall of the same year, he passed his bar examinations and became a member of the firm of Bohnett, Hill, and Cottrell in February, 1935.

Miss Dimmett is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Dimmett, formerly of Escalon, while Boccardo is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Boccardo, his father being the assistant manager of the main San Jose office of the Bank of America.

Boccardo is the city attorney of Morgan Hill and for a short term was acting justice of the peace there.

Scientific Films To Be Shown In Science Seminar

San Jose State college students will see the second of a series of scientific and educational films Monday when Chevrolet Motor company officials demonstrate safety features and noise elimination methods at the science seminar in Room S112 at 4:15.

According to Dr. P. Victor Peterson, head of the Science department, the films are non-advertising and come into the purely educational and scientific field.

With the safety demonstration will also be included a film showing the extraction and recovery of metals from their ores.

For persons interested in present day scientific methods in industry the films are interesting and worthwhile, according to Dr. Peterson.

Radio Club Plans To Contact Team

Radio contact with the San Jose State football team while it is in the Hawaiian Islands is being planned by the Radio club, it was announced yesterday by Dennis Bennett, president of the organization.

Repeating the project of last year, the club members will send messages to the team from San Jose State students and friends, and will receive and deliver any messages sent in return from the team in the islands.

The Radio club will nominate and elect officers for next quarter at its last meeting of the current quarter Monday.

NOVICE BOXERS TRAINING FOR FISTIC DEBUT

29 Novice Boxers Sign For Amateur Bouts December 3

Portal Predicts Large Turnout For Coming Boxing Tourney

May the best man win—
This, my reader, is the theme song of the coming novice tournament slated for December 3 in Spartan gym.

Up to date, 29 men have signed up for the amateurish amateur fray (that should be simon-pure enough for anyone). The contenders are fairly well distributed throughout the different weights with the exception of the light-heavyweight division which is absolutely void of defenders.

Coach Portal predicts the biggest turnout for this year's novice tournament that has ever displayed its wares at Washington Square.

There will be a total of 24 bouts for the evening (two in each division), and the rounds will be one and a half minutes with one minute rest between periods. Each bout will be three rounds in length.

Elimination bouts will be held the Tuesday and Wednesday preceeding the tournament.

The winner in each weight in the novice bouts will automatically be eligible for the all-college bouts to be held on January 12.

The winners in the all-college matches will chiefly comprise the Spartan boxing squad. Coach Portal urges any other contenders to sign up as early as possible.

INTRA-MURAL SPORTS

By WALTER HECOX

BOXING

Coach Dee Portal is happy. Many of the boys who have signed up for Dee's own little pet, the novice boxing tourney, have been showing up in the gym every afternoon and training diligently for the battle. Coach Portal reports that this is the first time in the history of the tournament that the entrants have trained for the event. According to Dee the lads signed up for the tournament and then forgot about it until it was time to fight. Naturally this practice left the boys in bad fighting condition.

Some of the boys are still using the old system, and to these Coach Portal can only say, "Remember what happened to Max Baer."

GOLF

Retraction of a statement made in yesterday's column was demanded by Bill Parton. Parton was two over par when he defeated Don Hickey in the Intra-Mural golf tournament. Also (according to Parton) any duck hunter should be able to shoot more birdies than he did. In conclusion Parton stated that he was not exactly unknown. All scores for the second round of the Intra-Mural golf tournament are due November 25.

CAGERS PREPARE FOR OPENING GAME WITH PACIFIC COAST CONFERENCE CHAMPIONS

Stanford's Cardinals Open Spartan Season

By JAMES MARLAIS

San Jose State's 1936-37 basketball edition swings into the final stages of its pre-season practice sessions as Coach Bill Hubbard grooms his varsity candidates for their opening game with Stanford University's Pacific Coast champions on Saturday, December 5 in the Spartan pavillion.

The Stanford clash will be the first scheduled game for the Spartan cagers who will play the coast champs without the support of their Coach, Bill Hubbard.

HUBBARD LEAVES

The Spartan mentor and assistant football coach will accompany the grid team in its invasion of Hawaii and will leave the squad in the hands of Graduate Manager Gil Bishop.

Coach John Bunn will invade the stronghold of the Spartans with practically the same team that swept through the coast quintets last season. Only Captain "Dinty" Moore, all-conference selection at guard, is missing. He suffered a broken arm this summer but promises to be ready to play within the next two weeks.

"LITTLE BOY HANK"

Again, it will be Angelo "Hank" Luisetti, sensational high-scoring sophomore leading the Cards against Captain Mel DeSelle and a tentative starting unit of DeSelle and Crawford at forwards, Carroll and Johnson at guards and either Ivor Thomas or Irving Groskopf, sophomore aspirants, at center.

Of this team, DeSelle, Crawford and Johnson are veterans of the 1935-36 varsity while Carroll is a transfer.

Lloyd Thomas, Lloyd Wattenbarger, Bill Lewis and Walt McPherson are in all probability accompanying the football team to the islands and will return in time for the conference season.

YMCA Poloists Meet Spartans In 1936 Finale

Frosh Angle With Hi In Preliminary Contest

Captain Dave Lynn will lead the Spartan water polo team against the San Francisco YMCA in the final game of the season this evening in the local pool. The affair is set for eight o'clock with a preliminary between the frosh and Bob Lock's San Jose high school seven an hour earlier.

Captain Lynn and Ronald Gordon, star scorer for the San Jose outfit, will be playing their last games for the Spartans as far as water polo competition is concerned as both are seniors and will graduate next June.

It is expected that the varsity will wallop the tar out of the "Y" boys inasmuch as they triumphed over the same team 13 to 8 earlier in the season and the frosh severely thrashed the "Y" 14 to 4 last week in San Francisco.

The preliminary contest is also expected to be a walkaway for the San Jose Frosh with Captain Frank Savage and Al Wempe winding up their arms to smother the high school goal with points. Captain Savage has been scoring points quite freely in the past two games, as against the YMCA team he tallied nine of the team's 14 points and in the intersquad tilt last Friday he accounted for five out of eight markers.

Thanksgiving Day Clash To Write Finis To Careers

Captain Les Carpenter To Lead Spartans In Last Tilt

When the Spartan Varsity tangles with Arizona State in the Seventh street stadium Thanksgiving Day, eight stalwart sons of the Gold and White will close their collegiate careers in football before the home crowd.

Eight men who will complete their playing on the Hawaiian Islands have finished their years of eligibility and will perform for the final time in San Jose.

Heading the list is Captain Les Carpenter, winner of the Webster Benton Memorial, and star blocking quarterback on this year's squad. Carpenter is completing his third year on the varsity and he hails from Paso Robles.

CANNELL THRU

George Cannell, an outstanding guard from San Francisco, is also completing his third year for the Spartans.

Don Baldwin, glue-fingered pass-snatching end from San Jose, is another that finds his collegiate days at an end. Baldwin is the lad that scored on a pass against San Diego this year and was responsible for two touchdowns against Redlands.

A 200-pound tackle who ran into a streak of hard luck this year is Bruce Daily. He received an injury to his back in the season opener against San Francisco University, and did not see action until the Humboldt State affair. Since recovering, Bruce has been playing outstanding ball at his tackle position. He closes his home stand also on Thursday.

SWARTZELL LEAVES

Barney Swartzell, another San Jose man, completes his college career at the center position on Turkey Day. He is finishing his third year for San Jose at the pivot spot and will leave a gap in the forward wall.

Charles Peach, who has played lots of ball for San Jose for three years, will complete his activities on the gridiron also. Peach has been consistent as a defensive halfback, and is a fair ball-carrier.

Another end, Bob Wing, finishes his third year on the varsity. Although out for a short while with a broken nose, Wing has been an aid to the squad with his offensive playing and strong defensive tactics.

Charles Spalding, another center, has been a consistent member of the squad for the past three seasons. Although not seeing much action this year, he has been a ready man to fill the position when called upon.

These eight players will leave holes to be filled next year by this year's reserves and up-coming freshmen.

APPROVED

The project has been approved by the United States department of Justice, and by J. Edgar Hoover, former G-man.

Students of the police school have been employed for the past year in collecting material for the museum. Letters sent by Wiltberger to the various police departments have met with success and they are to cooperate by sending articles which have been confiscated in their raids and arrests.

EVIDENCE

Evidence which has been employed in various trials are included.

"We are interested in anything that has been stolen, jewelry, typewriters, pocketbooks, watches, catalogues, old guns, x-ray pictures, photographs of accidents, and pieces of windshields that have been broken in accidents," Wiltberger stated.

INVALUABLE

"Such a museum" he continued, "is not only interesting, but invaluable in pre-employment training for men in the service."

"We hope the museum will help in the forming of a solid basis for the police course in the detection of crime and the apprehension of criminals."

La Torre Photos Close Nov. 30th

Adding an extra day to the taking of individual pictures for La Torre, Editor Robert Rector announced today that Monday after Thanksgiving will be the last day for individual student yearbook pictures.

Those students who have not yet had their pictures taken for the annual are urged to make appointments either today or tomorrow.

Tomorrow will see the end of faculty picture taking. Faculty members are now being contacted by members of the La Torre staff as to appointment times.

The Coleman Studios of Oakland announce that all students who wish to bring in or choose proofs already taken may do so today, tomorrow, or next Monday.

Dr. Kaucher To Read

Staters Prefer BRUNETTES TO Blondes, Titians

Brunettes 36; Blondes 27; Red-heads 9.

This final result of Joy Storm's KQW "Student on the Street" program held yesterday at noon indicates that San Jose State fellows are no gentlemen, or perhaps Anita Loos was wrong after all when she said "Gentlemen prefer Blondes."

An exact ratio of 4-3-1 is shown for the three classes of coiffures. Students were asked "Which do you prefer, blondes or brunettes? So the redheads did pretty well for themselves considering that they were not mentioned in the question.

Of course the wise guys had their fun. One said "I wouldn't trust either." Another, who must have heard Jack Benny's program Sunday night, stated he prefers a "plaid" shade.

Three persons said they had no preference, while two others diplomatically stated they liked all kinds.

Although tentative as yet, the next question to be asked on this series will possibly be "What do you plan as a career after you are through college."

Home Economics Club Holds Xmas Party Next Week

One of the last affairs of the quarter will be the Christmas party to be presided over by the Home Economics club next Monday in Room 1 of the Home Economics building.

Starting at 7:30 o'clock, the affair will continue until 10 p.m. Each girl is expected to bring a ten cent gift to be given during the Christmas season.

During the evening, installation of officers will be held, with Ruth Bigelow turning over her gavel to Marjorie Merithew, newly elected president. Other officers include Grace Terry, vice-president; Mary Masovich secretary - treasurer; and Doris Arnold, historian-reporter.

On the committee for the Christmas party are Claire Schaeffer, decorations; Vesta Boules and Evelyn Winning, refreshments; Meridith Porter, program; and Ruth Crawford, clean-up.
